

THIRTY TWO BODIES TAKEN FROM DAWSON MINE FRIDAY NIGHT

Dawson Waits in Silence the Work of Rescuers—Work is Fraught with Danger and is Slow—Cause of the Blast Has Not Been Determined—Four Bodies Badly Burned

(By The Associated Press)
DAWSON, N. M., Feb. 9.—While Dawson waits and watches in grim repressive silence, bowed down with immeasurable grief at the frightful disaster which afflicted her yesterday, rescue crews and volunteer workers continued tonight to comb the labyrinth of stygian passages in Dawson Mine No. 1, for the dead and living.
When the shifts of rescue workers were changed tonight 32 bodies had been removed from the subterranean tomb in which they had been struck down by the shivering blast of flame-laden dust at 2:30 P. M. yesterday.
Two men, whose ingenuity and presence of mind saved them from the deadly afterdamp which followed the explosion, were at home tonight with their families.
In the mine some buried beneath huge mounds of debris, others lying behind mammoth obstructions that blocked rescue workers and others far back somewhere in the dark depths of the many passageways not yet cleared, are 98 men. Dawson has not abandoned hope that they will be brought out alive.
The arrival of two mine rescue cars of the United States Bureau of Mines from Tucson, Arizona, and Hanna, Wyo., tomorrow is being anxiously awaited by local rescue crews.

SECRETARY SAYS HE HAS NOTHING MORE ON QUESTION

Hughes Tells Lodge Documents Contain All Information

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Secretary Hughes declared in a letter today to chairman Lodge of the senate foreign relations committee that written statements and documents he had recently submitted to the committee constituted all the information the state department possessed and which it was competent with the public interest to divulge on the reparations question and therefore any "oral explanations" before the committee by the secretary would be unnecessary.
The appearance of Mr. Hughes before the committee has been requested by Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas in connection with the latter's resolution for the appointment of official American representatives with the reparations commission.
Mr. Hughes' letter was interpreted as a virtual refusal to appear before the committee on this subject although he indicated that he might if an additional request on some specified question should be forthcoming.
Secretary Hughes tonight made public correspondence with Senator Lodge and with Senator Robinson. In answer to Senator Robinson's letter of February 6, in which he transmitted without comment the request of Senator Robinson, Secretary Hughes said:
"On the letter has been transmitted for my consideration. I may say that no oral explanations are needed, either to make clear or to supplement and none could be made which could modify, the direct and adequate statements contained in the written communications already sent to your committee. Without derogating from the right of the executive, acting through the secretary or state to determine the instructions to be given to agents in the exercise of the authority of the executive in the conduct of affairs, I have always sought in an appropriate manner to supply to your committee the information I desired so far as compatible with the public interest."
Reviews Documents
The letter reviewed at length the documents submitted to the committee the instructions sent by the senate department to the American observers in relation to their work with the reparations commission adding that Secretary Hughes already had pointed out to the committee the impracticability of sending copies of all instructions to the committee on account of their large number and the varied subjects to which they relate.
"I repeat that there are no oral explanations that I can give in which I can state any more clearly than I have stated in the written communications addressed to your committee," Mr. Hughes concluded, "the nature and extent of authority under which the American observers act, or to the instructions given to them, or to

CUMBERLAND MINE VICTIMS NUMBER 34 OFFICIALS SAY

Fourteen White Miners and 20 Chinese Are Killed

(By The Associated Press)
CUMBERLAND, B. C. Feb. 9.—The death toll in last night's explosion in No. 4 mine at the Canadian collieries (Dunsmuir) limited two miles from here was placed at 14 white miners and 20 Chinese in a statement issued by mine officials this afternoon. Twenty six bodies had been brought to the surface.
Seven men brought to the mine mouth by the rescue parties after heroic endeavors were taken to a hospital where they lay still unconscious but with a chance for life. There were 300 men on the night shift which was on duty when the explosion occurred. Cumberland this afternoon was a place of mourning. Women ran aimlessly about the streets waiting their grief. As each body was taken to the morgue, groups of men, women and children gathered about waiting fearfully for identification. The work of rescue went on slowly all last night. The men could work only four abreast. Each of the rescuers worked until he was exhausted.
Work of penetrating the mine was at first extremely dangerous with volumes of gas pouring thru the tunnels.
The first body found was that of W. Mitchell, 15. Rescue workers saw him in the hoist some time before they reached him but he died before help finally reached him.
A number of men came up from the main slope at the mine at the mouth of No. 4 level. These were the men recovered by the rescue party and taken to the hospital. Not one miner came out of No. 2 east drift alive.
Have Miraculous Escape
Ten Chinese were slowly being asphyxiated in one section of the mine had an almost miraculous escape. Ventilation, which had been completely destroyed by the explosion was restored as the rescue party went forward.
Arthur Watson one of the four fire bosses on duty at the time of the disaster, managed to crawl out alive and bring two boys with him, the three fighting their way thru thick dust and choking fumes. After he had given the alarm he re-entered the mine finding six Chinese, two of whom were alive huddled on one of the elevators. The two survivors were taken on stretchers and hoisted to the surface. Watson remained in the mine until after day break, helping in the rescue work.
A series of cave-ins hampered the rescue crew and timbering had to be undertaken as the parties proceeded. The bodies of five of the men were found in one group badly burned from the explosion. They had been killed instantly. Farther away the bodies of ten miners, overcome as they were worked their way thru the gas filled corridor were found in another group. The explosion was the second in the Cumberland workings within six months. On last August 30, twenty one men were killed by an explosion of gas. Since that time according to company officials every effort had been made to make the workings safe and extensive protective appliances had been installed. The first aid work last night and today was described as excellent.

PROSECUTOR SAVES MAN FROM PRISON

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.—Recommendation for clemency by the man who prosecuted him today saved Dr. Henry Green of Quincy from the penitentiary. Dr. Green was sentenced last week to pay a fine of $2,000 and serve two years in Leavenworth penitentiary for violation of the Harrison anti-narcotic law.
District Attorney Williamson, after securing the conviction, instituted a further investigation with the result that he recommended modification of the sentence on the ground that Dr. Green's violation of the law was due more to carelessness than to criminal intent. The sentence was reduced to $1,000 fine.

Protest Abandoning of Dwight Hospital

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 9.—A protest to President Harding against the proposed abandonment of the Veterans Hospital at Dwight, Ill., grew out of a meeting of members of the American Legion here tonight, held to greet National Commander Alvin Owsley and the department officials of the Legion in Illinois. Eight hundred legionnaires were in the audience which voted the unanimous protest, which was sent to the white house signed by all Illinois officials of the legion and which was supplemented by another protest sent on behalf of 15,000 auxiliary members signed by Mrs. J. C. Clougher, of Rockford, state president of the legion auxiliary.
The telegram to the white house informed President Harding that "we of Illinois are most conversant with the hospital conditions in this state and know what is best for the disabled."
"After a thorough and complete investigation we have reached the conclusion that a great hardship will be worked on these unfortunate comrades if the hospital at Dwight, Ill., is closed."
"This hospital has the reputation of being the best in the 8th district. The personnel has been most humane and kind. The good people of Dwight do everything within their power to make this a comfortable place for these unfortunate comrades to try and regain their health. The conditions and situation are ideal and we appeal to you to intercede for us and see that this hospital is continued in operation."
The meeting drew legionnaires from various parts of the state. The Peoria post sent a delegation of 20 members, including their giant, G. H. Page, who was introduced by Department Commander Charles W. Schick as one of the biggest men the United States navy had in the war.

CHINESE BEMOAN LOSS OF DIVINE WINE IN NEW YORK

Many Bottles Are Dumped Into the Sea by Officers
(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Seventy five thousand bottles of Chinese an exotic jade colored fluid beloved by oriental residents of various American cities to possess divine properties capable of appeasing the deity were carried out to sea in a custom's service barge today and thrown into the Atlantic.
Meanwhile superstitious residents of New York's Chinatown awaited with dread results of the destruction of the several hundred thousands of bottles of love, hate and death contained in the wine bottles. Sorrow and distress hush the usual bustle in crowded "Mott and Pell streets" when it was learned that protests had been unavailing. No more will the religious Chinese-American be able to invoke divine aid wailed one Cantonese. Formerly, a Chinese could grind a green beetle, mix it with jade wine, and drinking the mixture be sure he had brought hatred to the household of his enemy. To bring death lizard tails and small alligators were put in the wine. When love claimed an almond-eyed youth he would drink the wine after soaking in it the leaves of a Chinese flower similar to the forget-me-not.

ROODHOUSE MEN FOUND GUILTY IN FEDERAL COURT

Convicted of Conspiracy in Dynamiting of Alton Bridge
(By The Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—Patrick Hanahan, Jacob Sink and L. R. Taylor, railroad men of Roodhouse, were found guilty by a jury in the federal court here today of conspiracy in dynamiting of two Chicago and Alton bridges near Roodhouse last August. Edward Young and Harry Tucker, the other two defendants, were found not guilty.
Attorneys for the convicted men entered a motion for a new trial which will be heard by Judge Louis Fitzhugh next week.
The defendants were charged with placing a charge of explosives beneath two railroad bridges during the strike of railroad shopmen. The bridges were only slightly damaged.
Walter Young, one of the men charged with complicity in the conspiracy turned state's evidence.

ESTIMATED COST OF NEW CANAL IS BILLION DOLLARS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Estimated cost of a new canal from the Atlantic to the Pacific via the Nicaraguan route placed the figure roughly at a billion dollars, according to army engineers, and makes the project prohibitive for the present in the view of the president and his cabinet.
It was emphasized today at the white house that the only consideration given to the canal matter up to this time aside from the diplomatic exchanges with Costa Rica incident to the meeting here of the Central American conference, was based on the thought that prospective profits from operation of the Panama Canal might pay for construction of a new waterway.
Figures of a rough character worked out by army engineers at the request of President Harding and submitted to the cabinet today are regarded at the white house as making the project impossible of serious attention for some years to come.

COAL OPERATORS AND MINERS HAVE CONCLUDED WORK

Appoint Commission to Consider Local Matters
(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 9.—Coal operators and miners from Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas concluded district conferences today after appointing joint commissions to consider local matters arising under the contract for the southwestern field which was renewed yesterday for one year from April 1.
The Missouri conference adjourned until tomorrow.
Kansas miners and operators appointed a committee of eight to work out a revised scale and rules for machine mining coal. The announced purpose of the operators is gradually to substitute electrical mining for the method of mining by dynamite blasting, which they declare is wasteful and inefficient.
Oklahoma and Arkansas conferences decided to appoint a commission of one operator and one miner to continue to power one year and adjust all disputes resulting from a difference in interpretation of the contract.

FIRE DOES DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $250,000

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.—Fire tonight at Second and Fifth streets, which for a time threatened to assume serious proportions, was brought under control after the paper box plant of John Crampton had been destroyed and five other buildings seriously damaged. The total loss was estimated at $250,000.
Old Christ Church which stands near the scene of the blaze was undamaged. The entire central city fire department was called out and extraordinary efforts were made to save the old edifice which was dedicated in 1697.

CONGRESS VOTES TO APPROVE PLANS FOR DEBT SETTLEMENT

Vote on Proposition is Practically Unanimous
(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Approval of the British debt settlement agreement was voted today by the house 291 to 44.
One Republican, McCormick of Montana and 43 Democrats opposed the settlement and 227 Republicans, 63 Democrats and one Socialist member, Meyer London of New York voted for it.
Democrats opposing the settlement included, Rainey and Sabath, Illinois.
The house vote was on an amendment to the existing funding statute which not only would specifically approve the agreement reached with the British Government but also would authorize the American debt commission to make settlements similar but not more favorable in terms with the other debtor nations. The amendment will be formally transmitted to senate tomorrow and immediate consideration by the finance committee is planned. There was no effort in the house to attach a soldier bonus rider to the legislation and attempts to amend it otherwise failed.
Representative Hedges, Democrat, Texas, sought to change the interest rates to be paid by Great Britain from three percent for the first ten years and three and one half percent thereafter to a flat four and one fourth percent, but his amendment was rejected without a roll call.
Amid some jeers and laughter the house voted down a motion Representative O'Connor, of Texas to recommend the legislation with instructions to the ways and means committee to add a provision that the measure could not become effective until the "Hay-Pauncefote treaty dealing with the Panama Canal had been abrogated."
Would How the World
Chairman Fordney of the committee who had charge of the bill for the majority, then called for the final vote asking for a roll call to show the world as he expressed it, that the American congress is practically a unit behind the debt commission in this settlement.
Four hours of general debate preceded passage of the amendment and towards the last many of the members became impatient.
Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio, a member of the American commission and Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, took the lead in supporting the British settlement and Representative Collier, of the ways and means committee led the fight for the opponents.
The debate wound up in a series of five minute speeches, during which the plan was defended by Representative Linthicum, Democrat, Maryland; Humphreys, Democrat, Mississippi; Green, Republican, Iowa and Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee.
"All honor to Great Britain," said Mr. Green, "banding with her burdens she is determined to pay her debt."
Mr. Fordney declared that nine out of every ten in the house owed somebody.
"I've been married fifty years and still am in debt to my mother-in-law," he said, "So it behooves us to deal kindly with our debtors."
"WHITE COLLARED" EMPLOYEES COSTLY
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 9.—The Chicago and Alton paid "white-collared" employees bonuses of $540,000 and the Wabash spent $179,000 in this manner in an effort to replace striking shopmen last summer. It was testified at the government's hearing today. Testimony in the past four days adduced that the strike cost seven railroads $14,196,000. The total cost of the strike to the Chicago and Alton was $1,907,990 it was stated.
Alleged acts of violence it was asserted included tarring of an employee at Roodhouse, Ill., attacks on workmen at Slater, Mo., and the shooting up of the yards at Venice, Ill.
The testimony will be used by Attorney Daugherty in an effort to have the temporary injunction obtained last summer made permanent.

PROMINENT MEN IN NEW YORK CITY ARE SENTENCED TO JAIL

Four LaMontagne Brothers, Distillers, Convicted of Bootlegging Charges—All are Socially Prominent—Many Distinguished Attorneys Make Pleas for Convicted Men
(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Jail sentences for bootlegging were imposed today on the four LaMontagne brothers, distillers, all socially prominent and one internationally known as a polo player. Bail of $15,000 each was continued until Thursday that they might wind up their business affairs.
The quartet were indicted by a federal grand jury which investigated a dinner at the fashionable racquet and tennis club at which liquor was alleged to have flowed freely. The charges against the brothers were conspiring to violate the Volstead act and defrauding the government of taxes thru removal of liquor from bond on forged permits.
Charges with having released 30,000 gallons of liquor the brothers at first entered pleas of not guilty to both charges against them.
Today in federal court they changed their pleas to guilty.
A jail sentence of two months and a fine of $2,000 was the punishment given Montagu LaMontagne, president of the corporation which the four controlled. Four months in jail and fines of $2,000 each were imposed on the other three—Rene M., the polo player; Morgan E., and William A.
In presenting the case of Montagu to Judge Winslow, Attorney Haywood said he thought he deserved some leniency. Montagu was in France on business when the offenses were committed, but admitted general knowledge of them.
Distinguished lawyers appeared in court to plead for the brothers. The defendants, they asserted had suffered all the public disgrace possible and had their lesson and should be freed with fines.
But the court thought otherwise.
The day's proceedings opened with the statement by Colonel Hayward that no bargain had been made with the defendants.
He added that the government was in possession of unimpeachable evidence which would prevent the pleas of guilty from having any effect on the cases of nine other defendants indicted with the Montagues. These defendants except two had not surrendered would be placed on trial immediately. Colonel Hayward told the court. Then the pleas for the defense began.
Joseph Auerback asked the court to consider the recent pronouncement of Dr. Nicholas M. Butler in Columbus, that the prohibition laws did not represent the common sense of the nation, a violation of which was not a crime against society. Former deputy Attorney General Wade Ellis declared any sentence greater than a fine was an unjust and cruel punishment of the splendid wives and innocent children of the defendants.
John G. Milburn, Sr. president of the bar association said he had for years, "known these four boys and their fathers before them."
"Over fight, legitimate business has been turned into a crime," he said, "Yesterday it was within the law for these men to conduct their business. Men do not adapt themselves to the sudden changes in a day, a week, a month or a year."
Mr. Milburn intimated that the changed conditions of the business had reduced the LaMontagne brothers to comparative poverty.
Colonel Hayward urged jail sentences on the ground that whether or not the prohibition laws were to be modified or repealed in the future the people must be taught that the majesty of the law must not be defied.

A THOUGHT
What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him?—James 2:14.
FAITH without works is like a bird without wings; though she may hop with her companions on earth, yet she will never fly with them to heaven; but when both are joined together, then doth the soul mount up to her eternal rest.
—J. Beaumont.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon in an interview speaks optimistically of the business outlook. The secretary notes improved conditions all along the line, and indications of desired prosperity.
Such a talk from Mr. Mellon is in itself helpful, for the public knows that he speaks advisedly, and is not merely giving "booster talk" or prosperity propaganda.
There seems to be an extreme lack of interest with reference to the affairs of the local howitzer company. Twenty recruits are needed to bring the company up to the required strength. Altho a committee from the chamber of commerce is co-operating with Capt. James not a great deal is being accomplished. Unless there is an increased interest, this company will be lost to Jacksonville. Something should be done to prevent any disbanding program.

Chairman Smith of the Illinois commerce commission is widely quoted at Decatur, recently said that more work was the thing needed by the railroads. Mr. Smith went on to say that some of the railroad officials would do well to devote more time to work and less to talk.
The chairman criticized the methods of the railroads in their continuous quest for higher rates. The more work program is applicable to many problems other than the railroads. The desire to do as little work as possible, to give as little for the money paid, is the thought that is responsible for many of the present day ills of both capital and labor.

Jacksonville should be well represented at the hard road hearing in Springfield Tuesday. It is proposed to develop a route in a southeasterly direction from Jacksonville to Taylorville. Such a road would serve a territory that would mean an expansion of trade for Jacksonville.
A large delegation at the hearing will indicate Morgan county's interest. It is an acknowledged fact that this county has not had all the hard road construction that could have been brought about thru continuous co-operative effort.

Mayor Crabtree as the result of petition filed with his knowledge or consent, is considering the matter of again becoming a candidate in the primary for the office of mayor. The question which Mr. Crabtree must decide is whether or not he can afford to make the sacrifice of serving for another two years.

The filing of a petition bearing 450 names is indicative of the general esteem in which the mayor is held, and the desire on the part of the public to have his services continue thru another two year period.
Certainly if Mr. Crabtree decides to let his name appear on the primary ballot he has the right to ask that these same 450 persons or others see to it that men or women who will make an efficient and industrious council become candidates for the gubernatorial positions.

REPUBLICAN RETRENCHMENT
"If the American people are really feeling the burden of taxation, as they say they are, they ought to be immensely interested in the facts set forth by President Harding in his address to the Government Business Organization, a few days ago," says the Republican Publicity Association. "It is often said, and, unfortunately, too much so, that while the people of the country want retrenchment in public expenditures, they are never grateful to the man or the organization that does the retrenching." President Harding and the Republican congress have the distinction of effecting the greatest retrenchment in federal expenditures in our history. It remains to be seen whether the taxpayers of the country will show appreciation.

This reference to reduction in expenditures does not relate to peace-time expenditures as compared with expenditures for the prosecution of a war. It is common knowledge that after the armistice, and while the Democratic party was still in power in the administration of the affairs of the government, it was only by compulsion exerted by Republicans in congress that the Wilson regime was induced to demolish the military forces and reduce the number of civilian employees. The Wilson administration was as slow in getting out of military mobilization as it was in getting in. The Republicans cut a billion and a half of dollars out of Democratic estimates for expenditures.

"But the present discussion has reference to reductions in peace expenditures. After setting a good example by cutting expenditures for the white house, President Harding repeatedly urged every head of a department to cut expenses to the bone. On the recommendation of the president, congress reduced taxes in a number of particulars, well known to the public, and this meant reduced revenue. Last July, at the beginning of the present fiscal year, all indications were that in this twelve months to end June 30, next, there would be expenditures exceeding the receipts by almost $700,000,000. That was an enormous prospective deficit but it did not faze Mr. Harding, who has been against prospective deficits in his private business. He called a meeting of business heads in the government service, and asked for help in reducing expenses.

CAN YOU INVENT?
(NEA)
Ever try to invent anything? Or dream you invented something that made the dollar bills come down like paper snow in an old-time Lincoln J. Carter melodrama?
Well, then, you would find it interesting to attend the international exposition of inventions to be held in New York City at the Grand Central Palace, Feb. 16-23.
Advance notices of the unique devices that will be exhibited make us marvel at the vast resourcefulness of the human mind. One inventor has an automatic typewriter eraser. Another has a mechanical chimney-sweep. About everything possible seems to have been attempted by the exhibitors. One fellow even promises to bring an "airplane barge"—it there's a big enough door to get it into the building. Auto shows, by charging admission, introduced something new into the business world—making people pay to look into the show windows. Who knows but what the idea will be developed until the public has to pay admission to get into stores?
We hope the inventors charge sufficient entrance fee to provide a nestegg for each of them. An inventor usually needs it. As a rule, the profits from an invention are reaped by the people who create a sales market. Emerson said that if you make a better mouse trap the world will beat a path to your door. That was fine Big Talk. But it was hokum—as every inventor learns when he starts trying to market his invention.
A good feature of this New York exposition is that it will bring together the inventors and the men with idle capital who are looking for something to promote. Henry Ford, recalling the trouble he had getting capital interested in his "gasoline buggy" will sigh and wish there'd been such a get-together meeting when he was a young man.
Your Simon-pure inventor used to be a jack-of-all-trades, with perpetual motion as his goal. He began getting more practical after Uncle Sam announced that he'd no longer even consider applications for patents on so-called perpetual motion machines.

Running our eye over the list of inventions to be displayed in New York, we are struck by the fact that—with only a few exceptions—the devices are highly practical in nature.
It's a good thing that the great human inventive force is flowing along practical lines. Nothing we use is anywhere near perfection. Most of our devices are not more than 10 per cent efficient. You are reminded of this when you notice that most of the furnace heat goes up the chimney. Perfection of a furnace that would utilize even three fourths of the heat would be worth more to the Steam Age than a perpetual motion machine.
Salutations, you inventors! You are the leaders who are pulling civilization higher and higher. Your inventions make possible the existence of arts, higher sciences and personal leisure time.
ADD THREE WORDS A DAY TO YOUR VOCABULARY

Admirable
Adjective; pronounced ad-mi-rable; accent on first syllable; Worthy of praise; exciting esteem or approbation; very excellent. Example: The admirable manner in which he handled the proposition is praiseworthy.
Delectable
Adjective; pronounced de-lect-a-ble; accent on second syllable. Delightful, especially to and of the senses; highly pleasing; affording enjoyment or pleasure. Example: The program from start to finish was delectable. I enjoyed every number.

White Clothes on the Line
Do the clothes which hang on your line Monday morning glisten and gleam in the sunlight? If not you may be sure your neighbors are talking and branding you as a careless housekeeper. For there is no longer an excuse for poorly washed clothes.
Electricity has raised the standard of washing beyond the power of elbow grease. Washboard calisthenics, no matter how strenuous, will not produce satisfactory results—the principle of washing is flushing, not scrubbing.
We are prepared to demonstrate the Laundry Queen Washer at our store at any time.

TEA TOWEL SHOWER FOR CHAPIN CHURCH
Pastoral Helpers Provide Social Articles for Church Kitchen—Other Chapin Items.
Chapin, Feb. 9.—The Pastoral Helpers of the Christian church held a "tea towel shower" Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Woodward. At seven o'clock an elaborate supper was served, catered by Mrs. Woodward. Twenty-four tea towels were donated for use in the church kitchen. A Bible game contest was enjoyed with Mr. Woodward and Mrs. William Fisher receiving first prize and Mrs. P. M. Kinney and Mrs. St. Clair Taylor receiving second prize. Music on the Victrola and conversation completed a very pleasant evening. Five new members were enrolled.
Miss Isabelle Fox is confined to her home by a severe cold and was unable to attend her classes at the Conservatory of Music in Jacksonville either Tuesday or Friday.
Herman Wesler, of Arentville, was a business visitor here Friday.

FOREIGN WAR VETS PREPARE PROGRAM
Hon. H. H. Bancroft Will Observe at Lincoln Day Observance—Retirees' Will Be Served.

The regular meeting of the post is on that evening. However, the business session will be dispensed with and a program will be given to which all ex-service men, regardless of whether they saw overseas service, are invited.
Hon. Horace H. Bancroft of this city has been secured to make the main address and there will be other features on the program of interest. Mr. Bancroft is one of Jacksonville's best speakers and will be at his best in an address on the great emancipator.

MOVIE RUNS ARE BEING ARRANGED
(Bloomington Passenger)
The Chicago & Alton passenger traffic department has arranged for the second test run of a "moving picture show on the Alton Limited." Orders were issued yesterday to take one of the red coaches out of the Chicago-Portland and place it on a siding in Brighton Park yards tomorrow so that the apparatus could be installed.

E. E. CRABTREE'S PETITION IS FILED
During Mayor's Absence Petitions Were Circulated in Effort to Induce Him to Stand for Re-Election—Bear 450 Names.
Petitions providing for the candidacy of E. E. Crabtree for the office of mayor in the coming primary were filed with City Clerk J. E. Scott yesterday. The petitions carry 450 names. The circulation of the petitions and their filing may be looked upon as a spontaneous effort on the part of some of Mr. Crabtree's friends to make it certain that his services as mayor are to be retained thru another period of two years.

Those who circulated the petitions were: J. H. Dial, L. E. Hamilton, Lloyd S. Reid, Frank S. Plover, Frank Byrns, Paul D. Moriarty, E. E. Henderson, Fletcher Hopper, Frank Sullivan, Lee G. Magill, Lillian Danskin, R. E. Millican, E. A. Brennan, C. V. Rowe.
Mr. Crabtree went to Chicago Wednesday night and did not know until after his return Friday morning that the mayoralty petitions had been circulated and the filing was done without his knowledge.
Later in the day when Mr. Crabtree was informed of the action taken he would make no comment and is evidently reserving his decision in the matter for a few days.

It was known to many of Mr. Crabtree's friends that the increasing demands of his own business had led to his determination not to remain any further in an official position. Altho that decision had been announced, it is not at all unlikely that the filing of the petitions carrying such a large number of names, mostly business men, will result in a change in Mr. Crabtree's plans.

HEARD MR. OOLEY SING
Mr. and Mrs. William Newman, Jr., were very much interested Friday night in hearing the voice of William Ooley thru their radio equipment. Mr. Ooley, who is a former Jacksonville resident, is now in Los Angeles, where he is director of the choir of the First Baptist church. Last night he sang "I Hear You Calling."
Mr. Ooley's many Jacksonville friends will be interested in knowing that they again have the opportunity of hearing his voice, altho he is so far away. The Los Angeles station is K. H. J. While resident here Mr. Ooley was employed at the Andre and Andre store.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH ELECTIONS DELEGATES
At a meeting of the membership of Bethel A. M. E. church held last evening the following delegates were elected for the conference year James Mathews, W. A. Johnson, J. W. Kirk, A. J. Jones, Marion Cook, J. E. Yates, Lewis Postly, G. W. Montgomery, W. B. Briggs, Walter G. Taylor, was chosen delegate to the electoral college which convenes in May at Springfield.

DOKAYS DANCED
The Dokays gave another of their series of dances at Carle Hall Friday evening. Brownie orchestra furnished the music and seventy-five couples were present.
LEAVES FOR CHICAGO
Mrs. R. L. Dye left this morning for Chicago for an indefinite stay.

CITY PLANNING BODY IN REGULAR SESSION
Much Discussion of City Problems at Meeting Friday Evening—Will Nominate Additional Members of Board.
The City Plan commission held its regular meeting last evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. In the absence of the president, C. H. Kammekamp, the meeting was in charge of C. V. Rowe. Those present included: Mrs. J. H. Danskin, Mrs. Dennis Schram, E. L. Snyder, Ed. Louergan, Dr. J. R. Harker, L. O. Vaughn and H. J. Rodgers, also the secretary, H. C. Welch.
The commissioners entered into an extended discussion of various topics, including the studies of city planning which some of them have been making. A motion was passed to enlarge the commission by the addition of members nominated by the commissioners, each of whom will present two names at the next meeting. From these several will be selected for membership. It is felt that there should be a stronger representation of women on the commission, and that various organizations and interests in the city should also be represented.
The commission decided to make an effort to bring the president of the Decatur Plan commission, W. F. Hardy, here for a meeting with the members in the near future. It was also decided to obtain a meeting, if possible, with the head of the Evanston Commission. This is being done with the idea of improving the members' knowledge of the subject and obtaining suggestions as to how Jacksonville can best work out its city plan.

WABASH TO IMPROVE CROSSINGS IN CITY
Citizens of the First and Second Wards will be interested in an announcement of extensive improvements to be made by the Wabash Railroad Co., at all grade crossings from Howe to Prairie streets. Concrete sidewalk approaches are to be built to the tracks, and later the company plans to pave between the rails with asphalt.
A representative of the Wabash came here this week and awarded the contract for the sidewalk approaches to the Hoffman Cement Company. Work will begin as soon as the weather will permit.
At various times during the past months Mayor Crabtree has had this matter of crossing improvement up with the Wabash both by correspondence and personal interview. Several months ago the management indicated a willingness to put in board crossings, but Mayor Crabtree insisted that the work should be done with concrete and the road officials have at last consented to make the desired improvement.
The city requested the concrete sidewalks and approaches and the railroad management added the asphalt crossings.

Some Pioneer History

FROM MANUSCRIPTS OF FRANK J. HEINL

In compiling this story of a century ago errors may have crept in and important facts may have been omitted. Suggestions and corrections will be acceptable.

American Occupation

The American occupation of Illinois may be said to have begun with advent of traders and land speculators from the eastern colonies during the British regime, 1765 to 1778. The occupation of the French villages by George Rogers Clark and his troops during the Revolution introduced a new element for a number of Virginians became permanent settlers in the country. At first emigrants from the east drifted in very slowly. There was a decided increase between 1800 and 1810 but the Indian outbreak in 1811 followed by the war of 1812, almost completely checked emigration to the whole northwestern frontier. With the advent of peace, in 1815 and the opening of land sales in 1814, immigration received great impetus, and Illinois experienced her first "boom." The Illinois of 1818 was a very new community. Less than half of the inhabitants had lived here three years, and not quite a third had been in the region as long as three years.

Nativity of Settlers

A careful study of the nativity of heads of families in Illinois in 1818 indicates that about seventy per cent came from south of Mason and Dixon's line and the Ohio river, that about twenty per cent came from the east and north east, and the balance of the population was made up of the native French and negroes, a few Canadians and some of European birth. Only about three per cent came from New England. A study of the movements of individual immigrants disclosed the fact that a surprisingly large number had made one or two other moves before coming to Illinois. For those who came from Kentucky, their immigration into Illinois was almost invariably, their second move at least.

The bulk of the "southern" people in Illinois bore names typically Scotch-Irish, Welsh or German, indicating their connection with that stream of non-English immigrants which poured into Pennsylvania during the eighteenth century and thence up the valleys and thru the gaps into the back country of Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia.

Why Settlers Came

The real motive which brought into Illinois these pioneers who laid the foundation for our commonwealth and the quantity, quality and cheapness of available land. This type of settlers was preceded by other types. First came the hunters, a daring hardy race of men, who lived in miserable cabins and who, while they raised a little corn and kept a few horses, depended upon their rifles as their principal means of support. They were always at war with the Indians and very vindictive. They could not tolerate neighbors and moved on when others approached. These were pioneers but could not be called settlers.

The First Settlers

The first settlers were a mixed set of hunters and farmers and possessed more property and comforts than the hunters. They followed the range and sold out when the country began to be well settled, so that they could not raise their hogs and cattle on the wild lands.

These pioneers who depended upon hunting and the range for their livelihood gave way to the real pioneer settlers, who often acquired the improvements made by their predecessors.

FROM COAST STATESJacksonville Man Relates Interesting Facts About Southern California.

The following letter has been received from Charles H. Story, who is spending a number of months in California:

San Diego, Calif.,
Feb. 1, 1923.

Editor Journal:

We are nearly as far south as we can get on the Pacific Coast and still stay in the United States. San Diego is a bustling city of nearly 100,000 and making rapid growth since the close of the war. It is built from the bay back up into the hills and viewed from the harbor gives a wonderful spectacle.

On Wednesday of this week we drove out to Old Town, now a suburb of the city. It was here that the first American flag was raised on the Pacific Coast. Here was also located one of the old Spanish missions which remains to this day in a good state of preservation. It was in this mission that the Indians were gathered in and taught. The old benches and original equipment are still intact and we sat there and listened to the story of how the Spaniards established twenty-one missions from San Francisco to south of San Diego. Around these missions grew up the trading posts and a little settlement that finally determined who this section should belong and the whole territory became a possession of Spain.

It was in this little chapel where Ramona, the heroine in the book of "Ramona," written by Helen Hunt Jackson, was married. There is still the kitchen with its old Spanish copper cooking utensils, there is the spacious fire place and crane and the out-look. There are scores of Spanish and Indian relics of every sort. We drove on out to La Jolla about 15 miles distant and a most beautiful and picturesque residence center. Down on the rocky beach where the lashing of the waves has worn deep caves in their red stone, the scream and screech of the sea gull could be heard on the wing, or the wave busily engaged with its little sea-time catching fish. The sea lion came near enough to shore as to be plainly seen and as easily heard as they wallowed from wave to wave, diving thru in search of food.

Then one day we spent in Balboa Park, comprising 1,400 acres, and a most beautiful natural scenery to which man has added many beauties. Here is the wonderful Spreckles organ, the largest pipe organ constructed for an outdoor auditorium. The recital at 3 p. m., each Sunday is attended by thousands, all out under the sun and sky. Seats have been provided in a most spectacular spot, not far away was the Japanese tea garden, and its wonderful greenhouse filled with every variety of tropical growth from the banana to the bamboo. Yesterday we drove 15 miles south by way of National City, Chula Vista and Palm City to the Mexican section of Tijuana. Here is the greatest racing point on the entire western coast. The course of the track is especially fast it is claimed, and the natural lay of the land gives a splendid view while the races are in progress. We drove over the business and real-estate section of Tijuana and I was almost like being transferred into an entirely different world. Altogether we have ridden from 75 to 100 miles in Old Mexico, but I never have created a very good impression upon our party taken from any angle you may view it.

Today we attended Sunday school and church and listened to a splendid sermon by the Rev. Belden. This afternoon we drove out to the Mission Cliff gardens, with its deer park and ostrich farm. Later we visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hohobor and the home of Mrs. Alex. Mutch. Mrs. Mutch, is left since the death of her husband, with two little girls, 10 and 14, whom she is educating and striving bravely to maintain the home which is made much easier for her since she has so many excellent friends who render her every assistance and sympathy.

Tomorrow we drive 100 miles north along the coast to Santa Ana where we will visit Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Metz and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitlock and a number of other Illinoisians.

Yesterday evening we had a splendid visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Epler and Grandmother Rexroat who left Jacksonville in June, driving in their car and expect to get home in May.

Everything looks fresh and green around here and fruits and vegetables can be had in abundance.

While there are many advantages in a climate such as this it is not without its disadvantages. In fact, I can never believe that the good Lord has put all good things and all good people in one place. Will write you again from Los Angeles or Long Beach.

Respectfully yours,

It relieves Constipation
because it is ALL BRAN!

Kellogg's Bran every day is permanently relieving thousands of constipation sufferers throughout the world. No other food in history has done so much to give back health to men, women and children. IT IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO HELP SUFFERING HUMANITY AND IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN! Physicians universally are endorsing Kellogg's Bran because it acts naturally and positively, and because it frees sufferers from the habit-dangers of drastic cathartics.

Kellogg's Bran has won national recommendation because it is so delicious aside from its regulatory value. Do not confuse Kellogg's with common brands which are unpalatable and hard to swallow. You will relish the nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran; it adds greatly to the enjoyment of hot or cold cereals!

Eat Kellogg's as a cereal or sprinkle it over your favorite hot or cold cereal. Another popular way to serve it is to cook it with hot cereals. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person when the cereal is cooked. You'll like it with hot milk! Kellogg's Bran makes wonderful cookies, raisin bread, pancakes, etc. Recipes on every package.

To win permanent relief it is only necessary to eat Kellogg's Bran regularly and to be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls each day; in chronic cases, with each meal.

The relief Kellogg's Bran gives, as a natural bowel agent, is wonderful. Without the slightest distress it sweeps, cleans and purifies, ridding the system of toxic poisons and warding off some of the most terrifying diseases to which human beings are heir.

Don't delay this natural relief; give your family the benefit of this message of health—this great blessing to humanity! Kellogg's Bran is served in individual packages by leading hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant. All grocers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—No salary cuts for the 1923 season have been made by the New York Yankees, Col. Jacob Ruppert, president of the club said tonight in a statement denying reports that several Yankee stars had suffered severe wage reductions in the contracts recently sent out.

"No one player on the club was asked to accept a reduction," he said, "although two or three will be compelled to take their work more seriously than they did last year. Several of the players were given substantial increases as a reward for their good work last season."

Everett Scott, short stop, is the only regular who has sent in his signed 1923 contract. Babe Ruth and Pitcher Carl Mays have holdover contracts.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE LOST TO ROLLA 35-25

Coach Harmon's Squad Gave Missouri Team a Good Battle—Failure to Get Started in First Half Responsible for Defeat.

Failure to get started in the first half caused Illinois College to lose a hard fought game to the Rolla School of Mines at Rolla, Missouri last night the game ending with the score 35 to 25 in favor of Rolla.

The score at the end of the first half was 18 to 7 in favor of Rolla. In the second half Illinois outplayed the miners, the score being 18 to 17 in favor of Illinois.

Rolla has one of the strongest teams in the Missouri conference and last week defeated the Drury team on its own floor by a score of 28 to 16, so when fans remember the Illinois Drury game they will realize that Rolla has a real basketball team.

Hiatt was again good for Coach Harmon's squad, scoring four field baskets. Dale got one, Goebel two and Mellon three. For Rolla Campbell was a whole team, in himself, getting eight field baskets and seven free throws for a total of 23 points.

Illinois journeyed back to St. Louis today and will play St. Louis University there tonight. Illinois lost to St. Louis by a close score here this year. Last year Illinois won so the game tonight is the rubber and will be bitterly contested. The score:

Locals Tossers Hove Tables Turned on Them—Did Not Like Officiating.

Route high school journeyed to Virginia last night and tackled the high school team of that city, losing the game by a score of 34 to 21.

Recently Virginia played Routt in Liberty hall and was defeated by a score of 39 to 12. The visitors did not look good in that game and Routt did not anticipate a defeat last night.

The Routt men said on their return that they were not offering any alibi over the result of the game but said they did not like the officiating of Meade who is a former graduate of the Virginia high school.

For the Routt team Gebert, Trahey, Norris and Mallen scored the points. Davis, Sutherland, DePrates and Flannigan scored the points for Virginia. A large number of rooters accompanied the team to Virginia. The score:

JACKSONVILLE LOST GAME BY ONE POINT

Heart Breaking Contest Goes to Taylorville High by Score of 26 to 25—Visitors Win in Last Few Minutes Play.

Jacksonville high school lost a heart breaking contest last night when Taylorville nipped her out in the last few minutes of play by a score of 26 to 25.

The game was one of the fastest and hardest fought games ever seen on the local floor and fans were kept in a high state of excitement throughout. The players were under a high nervous strain but despite that fact the game was clean. Many fouls were called but they practically all were caused by over-anxiety on the part of the players.

When the game started Taylorville broke the ice first with a free throw. Then Jacksonville jumped into the lead with four field baskets dropped in rapid succession. At the quarter the score was eight to three in favor of Jacksonville. In the second quarter Taylorville got to going and at the half led by a score of 15 to 12.

Taylorville continued her lead in the second half but in the closing minutes of the third quarter Jacksonville forged into the lead by a score of 21 to 20. The fourth quarter was bitterly fought and Taylorville managed to put over two field goals and a free throw while Jacksonville got four free throws. The locals had a number of shots in the final quarter but did not seem to be able to hit the hoop.

Taylorville presented a well balanced team and one that was adept in passing and floor work. It was one of the best working machines seen here this year. Dalley, Goff and Best were the main point scorers for the visiting team.

For Jacksonville Hunter, Hunt, Hopper and Harrison scored the points. Brockman of Jerseyville was the official and he kept the game moving and it also kept him going. Brockman is an impartial official and knows the game thoroughly. This was shown by the fact that he called 14 fouls on Jacksonville and nine on Taylorville. Both teams, however, were well pleased with his work and it suited the spectators as well.

Hearing For Receiver Concluded Yesterday

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 9.—The hearing on the application of several members of the exchange for a receiver for the Equity Cooperative Exchange was concluded in district court today. Judge Becker took the matter under advisement.

It was indicated by both the defense and the plaintiffs that regardless of the court's decision further litigation will follow.

James Manahan, of counsel for the plaintiffs in closing his arguments attacked officers of the exchange and its attorneys.

"The Equity Cooperative exchange and its lawyers have tried to bribe plaintiffs to withdraw from this suit but they could not buy all of them off," said Mr. Manahan. "This exchange has swindled farmers of Iowa out of about half a million dollars with a 'confidence game.' At the very hour officers of this company on August 4, 1922, wrote the directors that at any time the doors of the exchange might close, they were selling the company's stock in Iowa at a premium."

"It looks like plain stealing to me. Yet that was the same crowd that the defendants want kept in power to further blacken the name of the cooperative movement in the northwest."

John Burke, former governor of North Dakota and of counsel for the plaintiffs suggested Mr. Manahan for appointment as receiver.

Mr. Manahan said he did not desire the appointment and would not willingly accept it.

Closing for the defense, Benjamin Drake declared that to name a receiver for the Equity would mean its destruction. The points most emphasized by the plaintiffs, he said, were fraud and mismanagement in the past.

Under the present management there is no danger of a repetition of such mistakes, he said, adding that a receivership now would help to remove acts committed in the past.

The exchange is entirely solvent, but is temporarily inconvenienced by having too large a proportion of its capital in fixed assets and needs only time to come out of its trouble safely, Mr. Drake asserted.

SHAH OF PERSIA GARLANDED IN INDIA

BOMBAY.—The Shah of Persia who has just ended a brief visit to India, was given an elaborate ovation of welcome and loyalty by Persian residents of this city. His chief purpose in coming to Bombay was to call upon certain natives who now live here.

Representatives of all communities connected in any way with Persia, whether subjects of the Shah or not, took part in the welcoming reception. The Shah's party, which included several Parsi women, was welcomed with sherbert in the old Persian custom. Prayers were offered for the long life of the sovereign and the prosperity of his country.

The address of welcome was read by Sir Hormusji Cowasji Anandwalla, President of the Iran League, who called attention to recent changes and predicted a happy future for Persia in view of the liberalizing influences which are actuating the present constitutional government. The text of the address, enclosed in a casket of silver mounted with gold on mahogany, was presented to the Shah amid much shouting and cheering. The Shah was then garlanded.

His majesty replied in Persian, thanking his guests for their reception and expressing his appreciation of the address. He assured the representatives of the Zoroastrians that their co-religionists were not out of mind, and assured them that distance did not make him forget any of his subjects. It would always be his policy, he said, to treat the Zoroastrians liberally as had been done in the past.

THE C. P. & ST. L. AGAIN, THINK IT CLEAR THRU

An editorial in yesterday's Journal furnishes food for thought. It says that a sale of the C. P. & St. L. will probably be ordered and no doubt bring a purchaser and under a refinancing plan a way which will be found to keep the road in operation. Think it thru. What does this mean? It means that if sold some one will buy it who wishes to run a railroad. Why should one wish to own and run a railroad? I take it for but one reason, that is that he may receive financial gain. Generally speaking this means here are two ways of reaping this gain:

(1) By financial exploitation. By this is meant that the owner issues stock and bonds and sells these to the public for such a price as leaves him a profit in the transaction, after which he is no longer interested in the road, unless it be to watch proceedings and at the proper time to repeat the process.

(2) By actually operating the road in such a way that after all expenses are paid there shall be a surplus sufficient to pay him. Under the first plan it is evident that the road will be run only so long as it is income is sufficient to pay all running expenses and in addition at least the interest called for in the bonds.

Under the second plan the road will be run only so long as its income is sufficient to pay running expenses and leave a surplus sufficient to pay the owner for his time and labor spent in the business. Except on the above basis there is no patent refinancing plan which will keep the C. P. & St. L. or any other railroad, in operation.

It will be readily seen that the first plan mentioned really gets us nowhere so far as the permanent operation of the road is concerned. The only show for permanent operation lies in the second plan. The problem then is this: How can the owner of the C. P. & St. L. railroad run it when he is so tied by government rules and regulations that he can neither reduce operating expenses nor increase income? If the owner could apply himself to the individual matter of so running the road that it would pay expenses and leave him a profit, bringing to this his best thought and executive management, unhampered by government restrictions, then he might successfully solve the problem and keep the road in operation, receiving in return the financial reward for which he is working. If however, he was not successful in so solving the problems he would finally cut and the road would cease operation.

Returning to the editorial, the writer closes by saying that a way will be found to keep the road in operation because any other course will be unfair to the public and "after all, the purpose of the operation of utilities is to care for the needs of the public." This brings us squarely to the parting of the ways. Why should the individual own a railroad? Will he put his money and his time into it merely that he may altruistically care for the needs of the public?

Is this the underlying cause of industrial activity? We must think the problem clear thru and face it squarely: Shall we depend upon the individual or upon the government? Individualism or governmental paternalism? This is the problem that faces us at every turn of the road. Shall I, as an individual, hire my ashes hauled off or shall the city do it for me, thus necessitating a public ash inspector, who must be paid by the city? One thing is very clear and that is the individual may be quite sure that he will not lose his individual privilege and right to pay his taxes.

farms and farm lands, have been comparatively inactive, with a sluggish movement.

"A continuation of the prevailing prices of live stock and agricultural products may reasonably be expected, with an advance in wheat at harvest time apparently assured.

"The lessons of extravagance have been valuable to curb the wants of people and will result in a more frugal care in the future. Wages probably will remain fairly constant, with some advantages in decreased cost of fuel and other operation expenses. The approach of an inflation period is seen in some quarters, the duration of which will depend upon the produce and care of those who profit thereby."

FLAPPER EXISTED 1,000 YEARS AGO
Chicago, Feb. 9.—As an addendum to historical evidence of the existence of the flapper approximately a thousand years ago, a local mercantile establishment today exhibited type of galoshes worn in that day. Some were of buffalo hide, another of composition and most of them about the height of the present day galosh.

An Afghanistan type was shown of red and gold lace.

FEED WILD DUCKS
Joplin, Mo., Feb. 9.—Several truck loads of shelled corn today were taken to Riverton, Kansas, west of Joplin, to feed thousands of wild ducks reported to be near starvation. The ducks' food supply was cut off when cold weather caused the Spring river to freeze. A number of ducks have been found dead.

Lincoln Day Program at Rotary Club
Horace H. Bancroft Made Notable Address on Life of Martyr President at Friday Luncheon.

Because of the near approach of the anniversary of Lincoln's birth, it was especially fitting that H. H. Bancroft should deliver a Lincoln address at the Friday luncheon of the Rotary club. The address was one which the Rotarians thoroughly appreciated, evidencing as it did the speaker's thorough familiarity with the facts surrounding the life of the great emancipator, who Mr. Bancroft said "belongs to the world."

Earlier in the session State Auditor Andrew Russell, who is an honorary member of the Jacksonville club, expressed his pleasure in being present and his desire to co-operate at all times in working for those things which are for the good of Jacksonville and Morgan county.

Mr. Russell said it was a matter of regret that he was away from the city almost every Friday and that it is therefore practically impossible for him to attend Rotary club luncheons. The guest list of the day included C. Y. Rowe, president of the Kiwanis club; Humphreys Springstun of Pana, and William S. Hughey of Chicago.

As a special musical feature the club had the pleasure of hearing a group of songs sung in an artistic way by Miss Lois Harney. The singer's accompanist was Miss Dorwart.

Rotarians were of one mind that in yesterday's address Mr. Bancroft outdistanced his own splendid record as a public speaker. In part he said:

Local References
The fact that W. H. Herndon, Lincoln's law partner was a student at Illinois College, that Ann Rutledge, his sweetheart had planned to attend the Jacksonville Female Academy, the fact that Richard Yates, future war governor met Lincoln thru his student friend W. G. Green at the home of the latter near New Salem and the fact that Douglas, his great opponent in the historic debates of 1858 resided for a time in Jacksonville, are circumstances of peculiar interest in consideration of the place occupied by Lincoln as a character "belonging to the ages."

The influence of the life of Lincoln increases with the years and more and more as the genius of his great manhood is studied and understood the feeling grows that in his death not men but mankind lost a kinsman.

Lincoln's humble origin, the migration of his parents, Thomas and Nancy Hanks Lincoln to Indiana and thence to Illinois, his trip to New Orleans in a flatboat, the years spent at New Salem called by one writer "his Freshman term in the University of Life with the common people as professor," his service in the legislature, his record of a single term in Congress and his law partnerships with Stuart, Logan and Herndon makes a life story of fascinating interest.

Lincoln-Douglas Debates
Until the great debates with Douglas in 1857, however, Lincoln enjoyed only a local reputation. When these seven great debates began the spotlight of popular favor played over the face of Stephen A. Douglas but when they ended the halo of light illuminated the rugged countenance of Abraham Lincoln and when three years later Douglas held the sick hat and gold headed cane of Lincoln while he took the oath of office as president of the United States the spot light of popular favor played over the faces of both Lincoln and Douglas where it has remained from that day to this destined to grow brighter with the years.

As President, Lincoln saved the nation which Washington founded, and his safe and sane leadership, almost superhuman at times, makes him stand alone in history, in the distinction of his greatness and his humanity. His efforts, to discover successful leadership in the Union army, his diplomacy in the conflict of ideas often experienced in cabinet meetings his tact in the clashes between cabinet members, the Emancipation Proclamation, the first and second inaugural, the Gettysburg address and the Farewell to Neighbors and Friends at Springfield reveal the high aims of his character and his high aims in dealing correctly with the men and events of his time. Lincoln as one of his biographers has well stated, ever appealed to the intelligence of men, never to their passions or prejudices. His vision was never "dollar blurred" and the time came when he saw that the soul of the Nation must be saved else the physical and commercial status of the country could end only in chaos.

The state of old Kentucky gave him birth and he was nurtured in the woods of Indiana but it remained for Illinois to give him to the Nation in the strength of his great manhood, a savior then, an inspiration now.

Mrs. J. H. Fuller Hostess to Domestic Science Club This Afternoon.

Murrayville, Feb. 9.—Mrs. J. H. Fuller was hostess to the Domestic Science club at her home this afternoon. The business session was held and the program followed. The members responded to roll call with selections from the works of Edgar Guest. Many beautiful poems of this well known author were given.

Two papers were given. The first was by Mrs. W. B. Rimbey on the subject of "Religion." Our Nation's Strength." It was a big subject but was handled in a capable manner by Mrs. Rimbey who brought out the thought that religion is the fundamental principle of civilization.

A "Favorite Bible story was the subject of Mrs. C. T. Daniel who took the story of Esther. The speaker painted a beautiful word picture of the heroic Jewish queen and the paper was an inspiration to all present.

Fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. A. R. Hayes were present. A social hour followed the program and the hostess served refreshments, the menu consisting of chicken a la king, apricot puff and coffee.

INCOME TAX FACTS

No. 12.

Inquiries received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue indicate a mistaken impression in the minds of many tax-payers concerning deductions from gross income for personal expenses. Deductions for living or family expenses, such as amounts expended for food, clothing, education of children, rent for a dwelling, hire of domestic servants and similar items for the upkeep of a home are expressly disallowed by the revenue act.

A storekeeper may not clothe himself and family with goods taken from the store and deduct the cost of the clothing as a business expense. A restaurant keeper or hotel proprietor should make an allowance for meals for himself and family.

The same rule applies to a physician who conducts a sanatorium. A shopkeeper who dwells over his place of business should deduct as a business expense the rental only of the portion of the building used for business. A farmer may deduct as a business expense wages paid a farm hand, but not those of a domestic employed in his household.

A physician who maintains an office in a rented house may deduct the proportion of such rent properly chargeable to the portion used for professional purposes. If, however, he maintains an office elsewhere and incidentally receives patients at his home, he is not entitled to deduct any part of the rent for his residence as a business expense. If a physician owns the home in which he has his office no deduction for rent is allowed.

The same general rulings in regard to deductions for home and office expenses apply to other professional men.

AVERAGES WERE FOR ENTIRE SEMESTER

In the recent scholarship report from the office of Principal Kaiter of the Jacksonville high school it was stated that the averages given were for grades received in the semester examinations. This was in error, as the averages are those which the high school students received for the entire semester's work in all subjects.

In the Senior class 10.9 percent of the members of the class received an average of 90 or above; 4.3 percent of the Juniors; 7.5 percent of the Sophomores, and 5.5 percent of the Freshmen. The percentage of students who failed in at least one subject was as follows: Seniors, 32 percent; Juniors 23 percent; Sophomores, 19 percent and Freshmen, 42 percent.

The list of students who received averages of 90 or above for the past semester's work, was printed in yesterday's morning's Journal. The following names and averages were omitted from the list by mistake: Henry Irving, senior, 90; Virginia Smith, sophomore, 92; Margaret Baptist, sophomore, 90; David Lander, freshman, 93.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Dr. Dan B. Brummit returned to Chicago yesterday after having very successfully conducted the Week of Prayer at the college. The services closed with the union services held at the college Thursday evening and in every way the week of prayer has been one of the most interesting and helpful that has been conducted at the college.

The student endowment committee has conceived another plan for raising money for the endowment fund. Three hundred little wooden barrels have been made and are to be used as banks. These little barrels are being given out to different organizations and individuals and are to be filled with the money earned for endowment. Each barrel will hold at least eighty cents in pennies and more if deposited in coins of larger denomination. The barrels will be called in and emptied at intervals and will be finally collected in about four weeks. Miss Carrie Dyarman, treasurer of the student endowment committee, is the chair in charge of the barrel-banks.

DUNN'S REPORT

TODAY WILL SAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Dunn's tomorrow will say:

"Comparatively few of the current reports reflect other than a active condition of business. Disruption of demand has appeared in certain quarters, but only after buyers' present needs have been liberally covered, and there are instances where purchasing is restricted simply by the inability of manufacturers to make early deliveries.

"Such a phase is sharply defined in the steel industry, where requests for quick shipment are increasingly important, but where mills are confronted with difficulties in maintaining operations.

"Complaints of labor scarcity grows more common and the fuel shortage continues an obstacle to full production. While a 90 per cent rate of output has been reached in some cases, despite the different handicaps the problem of meeting all requirements has not diminished and a number of commitments are of necessity being held in abeyance.

Market Report

By The Associated
PressRISING COMMODITY
PRICES FURNISH IMPETUS

Day's total sales 1,251,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 100.32, net loss .34. High 1923 101.05; low 96.96.

Twenty railroads averaged 89.17, net gain .26. High 1923 89.17; low 84.55. Total sales, par value, $12,464,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Rising commodity prices furnished the impetus for another advance in prices in today's stock market the fourth consecutive million share session. The customary week-end profit-taking, with short selling of industrial shares whose market position probably weakened by the rapidity of the recent advance, caused some irregularity in the late dealings but traders for the advance found little difficulty in bringing forth new purchasers to replace those which had temporarily fallen by the wayside.

Domestic trade conditions continued to be the predominant feature in quoted futures fresh encouragement being found in the weekly federal reserve statement showing a combined reserve ratio of 77 per cent the highest since October 25, which was interpreted as an indication of the strength of the country's banking position and announcements of higher prices for Cuban raw and refined sugar. While foreign news developments were largely ignored by the stock market the cable reports of an agreement between Turkish authorities in Smyrna and the allied naval commanders under which the status quo would be maintained pending diplomatic negotiations was reflected in the high foreign exchange rates.

Balcan was in free supply toward the close and dropped to 13 1/2 for a net loss of 1 1/2. The other usual market leaders, Standard and United States Steel showed only minor net changes.

President Harding's renewed appeal for action on the ship subsidy bill caused further buying of the shipings, marine common and preferred gaining about a point each and Atlantic Gulf and St. Louis common and preferred 1 1/2 and 3/4, respectively.

Activity in the rails was confined largely to the low priced issues. Kresge jumped 5 points on a small turnover and Chandler Motor touched 72 for a net gain of more than 2 points.

Call money opened at 4 1/2 per cent and closed at 4 1/2. Brokers are bidding 4 1/2 for call money but finding only meager offerings at this rate bankers demanding five per cent for all maturities.

Commercial paper is moving in moderate volume 4 1/2 per cent for the best names. Demand sterling sold just below $4.68, the year's high and French francs hovered around 6.25c.

German marks showed further improvement advancing from .60341 to .60352 cents. Trading was relatively quiet.

All the active U. S. government bonds showed gains of 4 to 28c on $100, the Third 4 1/2s again getting above $95. Buying of these issues reflected the increased demand for the tax exempt securities.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Aside from the effect of rapidly shifting reports about peace and war chances in the Near East the wheat market today averaged higher price owing largely to apparent confidence shown by holders of May in which eastern interests were said to have ownership totaling upward of 10,000,000 bushels. The market closed unsettled with a net gain of 1 to 1 1/2c. Corn finished 1 to 1 1/2c up, and oats up 1 to 3c. In provisions the outcome varied from 2c decline to 7c advance.

After a wavering start, the wheat market took a general upward swing as a result of active commission house buying that in the main was ascribed to eastern orders based more or less effect with the cheapness of wheat with relations of other commodities.

Good buying support for May wheat appeared strongly in evidence during the final dealings and prevented bearish traders from getting control of the market. Bulls put considerable stress on improvement in flour business and on falling off in the volume of primary domestic receipts.

There also was talk of farmers' efforts to withhold supplies in Canada and Argentina. Export demand was slack and snow was looked for over a great part of the winter crop belt.

Corn and oats were firmer with wheat all deliveries of corn touching a new high price record for the season.

Provisions reflected upturns in the value of grain and hogs.

FAIR ASSOCIATION FORMED AT DECATUR

Circuit Embraces Six Towns in this Immediate Vicinity—Good Card of Races—Is Outlined.

One of the important moves made at the Convention of Agricultural Fairs held in Decatur on Wednesday and Thursday of this week was the formation of a Fair Circuit of the six fairs in the close vicinity of Jacksonville. The object of this circuit is to have better racing programs and to work in closer co-operation as to the dates and attractions for the different fairs.

The towns and fairs forming this circuit are:

The Morgan County Fair at Jacksonville, to be held August 28 to 31, inclusive.

The Jersey County Fair at Jerseyville, to be held September 3 to 7, inclusive.

The Scott County Fair at Winchester, to be held September 10 to 14, inclusive.

The Illinois State Fair to be held at Springfield, September 17 to 22, inclusive.

The Macoupin County Fair at Carlinville, to be held September 25 to 28, inclusive.

The Greene County Fair at Carlinville, to be held October 1 to 5, inclusive.

When the organization was formed, E. E. Simpson, secretary of the Greene County Fair, was named as secretary for this circuit. This new circuit has not as yet been named but it was suggested at Decatur that it be called the Jacksonville-Southwestern Circuit. Representatives from the different cities in this circuit will meet in the near future to arrange for a more detailed program of activities for the coming fair season.

The program of races for the coming fairs was outlined at Decatur, as follows:

First day—225 trot and 225 pace.

Second day—230 trot and 220 pace.

Third day—217 trot and 214 pace.

Fourth day—220 pace, 218 pace and 212 pace.

No attempt was made to regulate the purses to be paid at the races during the coming season. Each fair will use its own judgment in the matter.

The Morgan County Fair board will hold a special meeting this afternoon at two o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the purpose of meeting with representatives of booking agencies and attractions for the coming year. Among other matters to be taken up regards the providing of additional barn space for race horses which will be brought here to be trained.

Refreshments of a kind suitable to such an occasion were served by the hostess during the evening.

More and stronger chicks from Klondike or Old Reliable Incubators.
